THE SERVICEMAN'S CORNER:

Somewhere in Korea
July 13, 1951

Hello, Recs:

How is everything in Brisbane? After traveling for 29 days, at last I finally arrived here, where I'm living at the visitor's bureau. My duties consist of driving the visiting "big brass" from airstrips to the guest house here, and from the guest house to the front, and back. Of course, we occasionally haul a Lt.-Colonel around, but nothing under that. Last night Gov. Dewey stayed here, as well as the Sec. of the Army, and then they all left with Gen. Ridgway, to go to the "front" to have the Big Peace Confab. I'm also eating the same chow that the guests are eating--(and out of dishes, too!) I guess I've finally found a home in the army.

I will have to close for now because I have to get up at 3 a.m. to pick up the American Ambassador to Korea (John Muccio) at headquarters and bring him here to the guest house. If you get around to it, it would sure be swell if you would send me a copy of the Byline once in awhile--I would really appreciate it. In the meantime I will be waiting to hear from you.

Goodbye for now--Sincerely,
DAVE TRACY.

Biloxi, Mississippi
July 15, 1951

Dear Gladys and Warren:

Happy to say that I received my 1st two copies of the Byline at last. Both had to catch up with me as a result of my finishing basic training and being transferred here to Biloxi. I am here now taking a 22 week course in Radar Electronics and when I finish that course, I hope to get transferred to Denver for a course in Radar Jet Repair and possibly apply for flight status. If not, my next best choice would be at a west coast Radar station.

As for Bob Owens (Rowboat)--you didn't seem to know too much about him and what he is now doing. He is here at Keesler AF Base, and was assigned to a Radar Operator school. But before he could start his training, the school was shut down, and he is now waiting for re-classification.

Both Bob and I have one big hope--that is, as you can probably guess, to get HOME FOR CHRISTMAS! There seems to be a pretty fair chance of it, too--as the majority of the schools shut down for ten days around Christmas. I sure hope we can make it.

I think your Serviceman's Column is one swell idea. Being in the service myself now, naturally I appreciate it more--but I remember when I read the column before I joined up, I always got a kick out of knowing where all my buddies were going. Say hello to "Little Willie" Hatch and to all of the rest of the gang for me. The base here isn't bad--we have all kinds of recreation and shows. I don't think I'll mind being here until November, but I'd like to get home, like any of the rest of the boys. We're all the same about that, I guess. As ever,

BOB MINK.

LETTER TO THE SERVICEMEN:

Gosh--all these very nice letters--who says we're getting no returns on our little "investment"? Keep them coming, kids---it sorta fills the "gap" you left when you took off into the wild blue yonder!

The old home-town is getting pretty quiet---except for the usual childish voices coming from kids on vacation. Most of them are wandering around saying "But gosh, mom--what'll I do now? There's nothing to do, mom"--and so forth. Of course, we have a very good schedule down at the Recreation Center which keeps some of them busy---and there's summer camps for those who can afford them---and vacation trips for those who have folks with vacations at the same time; but we hope you boys in Service will do something about your little brothers and sisters when you get back--remember, you are the future voters of this community. I think you are a little more able to remember that awful lull after school let out than we older folks are.

As for you guys getting home for Christmas---you're not wishing for it any harder than WE are. The Moms and Dads of this community wouldn't wish for any better Christmas present than to see that boy of theirs walk in on Christmas morning, or a few days before. I take it back--there is one thing they'd rather have---to have you back for good!

We have the good old fog back with us this week--rolling down the hillside with the help of a pretty stiff wind. Although it is a little cold--it feels pretty good after last week's hot weather. It got too hot for comfort here one day---it must have hit 100, because it was 96 at the Airport, and anybody knows that whatever the rest of the Peninsula does--Brisbane can do better. (That's a joke, son.)

The births and the deaths go on--but it's been a little while since we've had a good rousing wedding. Guess the girls are waiting for you guys to come home, huh? Well, that's the way you want it, so that's the way it's gotta be. Speaking of girls, you should see the purty things stop out in front of the Byline office window, to admire the handsome gents we have posted up there (in snapshots and photos) in our Honor Roll. We have 17 of you up there now but we're still lacking some 34 of you. How about getting those snapshots in here, or how about reminding your folks about it next time you write them? It tickles us to hear some cute teenager squeal--"Oooh, ISn't he CUTE!!" "----Well--how about it? Are YOU up there?????--as ever, YE EDITOR

BLAIR'S RANGERS ON OVERNIGHT:

Twenty-two Rangers reported for duty at headquarters on Sunday at six p.m.--and accompanied by Captain Blair and mascot Tyke, hiked off to Bivouac in the usual grove of trees south of Brisbane. The Rangers held night-security drill, and the shooting was excellent on the target range early Monday morning. Capt. Blair reports that he is well satisfied with the conduct of his Rangers on these overnights. The next overnight will be announced and posted at a later date. All Rangers are asked to watch for the posted announcements.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO HOLD PUBLIC
BIBLE TALK IN SAN BRUNO:

"The natural surroundings of God's creation is a proper place to take in knowledge of Jehovah. Christ Jesus set the example for this; much of his preaching was done by the seashores, in the market place and on the mountain sides.

"The talk is entitled "Conquering Fear in a Perplexed World"--to be given by a representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society. This is a very timely topic to be discussed, none of us can deny that the condition of this present world is critical.

"There are many things that we value highly,---money; our car; home; and position. Dear as these and similar things may be, there is one thing ever so much more precious---LIFE. What would you be willing to give for ten years more of life? Or what would it be worth to you to live forever? Impossible, you say? It does not seem so when one thoughtfully considers the words of Jesus--'This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of You, the only True God, and of the One You sent forth--Jesus Christ.' (John 17:3)

"You are cordially invited to attend the above talk in San Bruno City Park, on Sunday afternoon--July 29th, at 2:00 p.m."

--as submitted by JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES, of 517 Easton Avenue, San Bruno, California.

PENINSULA PAPERS RIDICULE JEHOVAH'S AGAIN:

Once again a "bad" item about Brisbane has appeared on the front pages of Peninsular Papers. This time it was the small item about the three local youngsters who got tipsy on brandy---normally, the item would have been buried on the back pages, just as a fill-in. But as usual, it appeared on the front page, boxed in, in heavy black lines---so that everyone would be sure to notice it. I wonder why it is that when something good happens here, as often does---it either never appears in the Peninsula papers at all, or it is buried so deep in other more important items that it takes a magnifying glass to find it? For instance--how much publicity did Brisbane get when the whole town dug down deep and supplied the widow of our chief of police with more than $2000? And you keep reading about the returning heroes from other Peninsula towns---how many papers have covered the fact that we have more than fifty local boys in Service, and that we have five or six PURSUE HEARTS among them??? How many items have appeared in the other Peninsula papers pointing out the vast amount of GOLD and SILVER we have here in our little community? Who has taken notice of the fact that little Brisbane FOUR Churches--and each of them with a large congregation?? --THE EDITOR

BOOK REVIEW:---

It has been quite some time since the Byline had room enough on it's pages to print a Book Review. But this time, we've just finished reading one of the finest books in any Century. We mean "QUO VADIS", by Henryk Sienkiewicz, and translated from the Polish by Dr. S. A. Binion.

"QUO VADIS" (Whither goest Thou, Lord?) tells the trials by fire and torture of the Christians of Nero's day in Rome, just some thirty years after the Crucifixion of Christ. Some of the book's characters knew Christ when he was alive, and saw him after death, at the Resurrection. Apostle Peter, and Paul of Tarsus, famous characters in Biblical History are prominent in this story. It was the teachings of Apostle Peter which made Rome the Christian capitol of the world that it is today. But the story itself follows the life of one Marcus Vinitius, a Roman nobleman, who becomes converted to the Christian beliefs through his love for Lygia; and of his uncle Petronius, high in the favor of Nero. Through his wit and cleverness, he was finally responsible for the downfall of Nero.

This is the story of the burning of Rome by Nero and his henchmen; simply because vain Nero wanted to be able to write better poems and songs about a burning city than had been written about the burning of Troy. To escape the wrath of the people, Nero lays the blame for the burning of the city on the Christians, and sentences them all to death by fire, and by torture, and by wild beasts. Apostle Peter and Paul of Tarsus are both crucified, but die happy in the knowledge that they are suffering the same death which took their Master, Jesus. Nero oversteps himself in the bloody massacre of the Christians---a public demonstration which goes on for days and days--until his own people sicken of it, and more of them are converted to the Christian Religion through Nero's base showiness than would have been otherwise. Therefore, in spite of himself, Nero was also responsible for Rome becoming the Holy City as we know it today.

LOCAL CHURCH HOLDS BIBLE SCHOOL:

The Bethel-Baptist Church at San Bruno and Mendocino Streets in Brisbane is holding summer Bible School from July 21st through August 4th. All children from the ages four to fifteen are welcome to attend the sessions which take up at nine each morning and run until noon daily. The sessions will include Bible study, singing, play, and handwork. Parents, a good place to send that "vacationing" boy or girl each morning.

NAVY EXTENDS ENLISTMENTS:

Men who have received their pre-induction draft notices may still volunteer for the Navy. The July 15 deadline for such enlistments has been extended to Aug. 1st.

Navy recruiter Peter Foulger invited young men who have been ordered to report for draft physicals but who have not actually been inducted, to investigate the opportunities offered in naval service. The office is located in the Post Office Building in San Mateo.

EASTERN VISITORS:

Recent visitors at the Troy Cotten residence at 113 Mariposa St. were the Orville Cottens of Memphis, Tennessee, accompanied by daughter Nerma. Troy and Orville Cotten are brothers. The eastern visitors have returned home by automobile.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT THE BRISBANE THEATER:

Wednesday night's Amateur Talent Show at the Brisbane Theater once again exceeded all expectations. These youngsters are well on the way to fame and fortune if they stick to it. This week's show was stepped by sixteen year old Charles Menkon with his loose-limbed tap dancing and "spoon playing". Running him a close second was Accordionist Stan Seibert and Dancer Carmelita Anzalone. Little Carmelita forsook her Spanish costumes this week in favor of a silvery Hula skirt. It is remarkable how this tiny girl can remember all the steps and gestures in these difficult dances. Two girl singers pleased the audience, one of them a teen-ager named Dolores Hernandez who has a good "torch" voice, and Stella Lerates, who shows great promise professionally. Stella, by the way, works the candy concession at the Warfield, downtown. The show act on the bill this week was a surprise act, with Joyce Cody and Ronald Fernandez;-- Ronald surprising everyone with his costume of a delectable woman (had us all fooled until he took off the bandana)-- and Joyce dressed as the man in the act.

Max Liss, director of these shows, and Mr. Hutsell, manager of the local theater, regret to announce that there will be no stage shows during Max's absence while on the east coast. After three weeks, they hope to resume them, but no definite plans are being made at the present time.

WHAT'S THE SCORE????--by Ron Wright

Last week there was one outstanding player for the Brisbane Athletic Club. This week there were more than one; there were NINE! The Menlo Park Club will long remember the thrashing they received received from the Brisbane A.C.'s. Some 200 Brisbanites journeyed down to Flood Park 1st Sunday to watch Jim Hatchell pitch one of his best performances this season. Jimmy didn't allow a single hit until the last of the fifth, when the little second base man punched a single in the hole over second base, and that was all, until they punched out three straight in the bottom of the seventh to give Jim a four-hitter. Jim Hatchell is undoubtedly the best hurler in the league, having turned in one no-hit no-run performance this season. The A.C.'s are tied for first place with Woder's St. Aloysius, as the last game will be played next Sunday at Flood Park at 1:00 o'clock. Final Score of last Sunday's game? Brisbane 14--Menlo Park 3.

Here's the box scores for the A.C.'s: Trantham, 2nd base--4 times at bat--2 runs, 1 hit;--Blanchard, 1st base, three times at bat, 2 runs, 2 hits;--Galenti, third base, three times at bat, 2 runs, 1 hit;--Roland, catcher, three times at bat, 2 runs, 1 hit;--Butcher, left field, 3 times at bat, 2 runs, 1 hit;--Leverini, right field, 3 times at bat, 2 runs, 2 hits;--Lorenzo, shortstop, 4 times at bat, no hits, no runs;--Rosa, centerfield, 4 times at bat, no runs, no hits;--Hatchell, pitcher, 2 times at bat, 2 runs, no hits. A total of 29 times at bat--14 runs--8 hits. 12 strikeouts, 2 baschits by Galenti--3 baschits by Blanchard and Leverini. Delbon replaced Galenti at third base.

Well, thats all for now. RON WRIGHT
